

Outstanding Thesis, Dissertation, and Plan B Award Nomination

PURPOSE The Outstanding Thesis, Dissertation, and Plan B Award was established to recognize scholarly activity by graduate students and the contribution made by their faculty supervisors.

AWARDS A maximum of eight awards will be made in October by the Dean of the College of Graduate Studies. Bookplates recognizing the award are placed in the library's and student's copies of the document. In addition, a certificate is presented to the student.

ELIGIBILITY Theses, Dissertations, or Plan B papers completed during the 12 months prior to the nomination time and nominated by a faculty member are considered.

PROCEDURES Faculty members should complete this form and attach the completed thesis, dissertation, or Plan B paper. A subcommittee of the Graduate Council evaluates the nominations and makes recommendations to the Dean of the College of Graduate Studies.

DEADLINE Nominations are due by 5:00 p.m. on Friday, October 2nd, 2009 in the College of Graduate Studies at the address below. Recipients of the awards will be notified in November, 2009.
